Chapter 1 by Artheimr

As long as I'm with you, even tragedy becomes romance.

Ever since the moment I first saw you, I began losing my mind.

If only we could shove our past, present, future, everything into a box, and set it on fire...

Let's wave Goodbye to a world where even an angel wearing the innocent of smiles, turns into a demon and fall down to the depths of hell. Now that the cold's spreading throughout our tightly joined hands,

We can truly become one.

Even the poison devouring us from the inside, seems lovely. Because the sword piercing through our hearts, won't tear us apart,

Until we offer up our lives, that is.

What we are, is, perhaps, what they would call "soulmates".

And I no longer need to steal anything from anyone, for I've felt such happiness. The sins you carry on your tiny shoulders, and even the thousands of lies.

Let's share them all among the two of us, and string them together.

It's a promise.

Now that our lips are melting away, the truth will unravel itself.

That day, I was following I

you. And so the world,

Until we end our lives, that is.

As long as I have you by my side,
Even hell becomes heaven.

Chapter 2 by

It's like a drug.

Rushing through my veins, it's effects last long after you go, and as soon as I see you again, the power - the euphoria, the bliss - surges once again through me. The world around us is hazy, but that doesn't matter. We have each other and we are each others' worlds.

But even drugs are poisonous. Drugs can kill.

And so can love.

Chapter 3 by Queenie

So when you said you didn't need me anymore, I thought I would break.

Shatter.

Crumble.

Die.
